Mitra's Musings

Happy February Grosse Pointe UU's,

I am writing from Oregon, wearing my rainbow hat knitted by Ann Helm. Thank you Ann. It's cold here – but it's colder there! All of you, individually and collectively, are on my mind.

I want to lift up a few things as we continue in this transitional year.

- If you have not already – please complete this questionnaire about church communication. (It is a google form link. Here it is: <https://forms.gle/YugWv6E3Vnr54mEAA>) This will help me to understand our communication patterns.

- Remember – you are encouraged to think about trust building and take one action toward building relationships. Then tell me about it. You can email (mitraingp@gmail.com), or send a card, or leave me a message at the church. From those who have done their homework – it warms my heart to hear about people intentionally widening their circles.
- We are planning Spring Church Chats. This is a time to come together and talk with me and one another about the happenings in the church. Mark your calendars now for Wednesdays at 6:30pm on March 6th, April 10th, and May 8th in our sanctuary.

I am currently working on staffing and personnel policy reviews and look forward to being with you in March for some Spring fun! I am also thinking about processes of resiliency. I wrote a prayer for the UUA's 30 days of love campaign on resiliency and thought I would share part of that prayer below.

Stay warm and see you soon.

*With love,
Rev. Mitra*

Excerpt: Prayer for Resilience, Rev. Mitra Rahnema 2024

We arrive to prayer with stress, sorrow, bits of wonderment, and hope. We center ourselves before the great powers of the universe grateful for the love we know, the warmth we feel, the joy we can imagine, for the people who inspire, the resources we use.
Thank you

Humbly we ask of ourselves, of one another,
of our ancestors, of our faith, of the great holy:
To be aligned with what is most true and good in the universe.
And we pray for resilience while alignment happens.

We prepare ourselves for resilience through the year ahead by:

- Making amends — clear up any nagging discomfort or despair
- Setting aside shame — we cannot afford to have it slow us down.
- Shoring up reserves — keep focused on the big stuff
- Resting the mind — allow ourselves to laugh, play, love
- Strengthening our relationships — for trust must exist
- Remembering our values — bring intentionality alive
- Humbling ourselves — remember we cannot make it all better on our own.

For then, we will be ready to receive our prayer.
Our prayer for resilience.

May it be so, Amen.

Religious Education News

Just think...all the endless possibilities February could bring to you and your family! I tend to think of people that I love because of Valentine's Day - but then I rethink my New Year resolutions and I start thinking seriously about what I am going to accomplish during the year. So, these are a few of my questions to myself for the Love month of February:

- Who is the ONE PERSON I would most like to help or develop this year?
- Who is the ONE PERSON I would most like to learn from this year?
- If I could only do ONE BIG THING this year, what would it be?
- Where is the ONE PLACE I would most like to go this year?
- What is the ONE ROADBLOCK holding me back this year?
- What ONE THING could I do to remove that roadblock?
- What is the ONE THING I do best?
- What is the ONE NEED I feel most deeply burdened by and uniquely qualified to meet?
- What is the ONE TRUTH I would most like to share with people this year?
- What is the ONE HABIT I would most like to stop this year?
- What is the ONE HABIT I would most like to start this year?
- In what ONE AREA in my life would I most like to grow this year?

So, over the next couple of weeks, spend some time with your family to think about these questions. You may want to sit down over coffee with some GPUC friends and discuss some of these questions. This is a wonderful way to love yourself and then love others.

Religious Education Lessons

The nursery will be open at 10:15 a.m. every Sunday morning. We have the same loving childcare workers to provide a safe and caring place for our young UU's. We also have a pot of coffee for parents to enjoy and get to know each other.

The students asked to put together peanut butter sandwiches again. This was a service project that our classes worked on for the Detroit area. We made 120 sandwiches and delivered them to the agency that passes them out in Detroit.

Our students also had a church visit to Grosse Pointe Methodist Church and then went to the Coney Island for breakfast. We will be visiting another church in March or April.

Dates to Remember

February 4th at noon — Are you coming to the “Beyond the Birds and Bees” workshop? Light lunch provided. Please RSVP for childcare.

February 6th - Feeding the Homeless

February 11th - RE Committee meeting at 9:15 a.m. in Room 7 of the RE wing

Where there is great love, there are always miracles.

Maybe you remember hearing that funny little song, first recorded by Frank Sinatra in 1959, “High Hopes” — it’s a catchy tune with those goofy lyrics about an ant that thinks it can move a rubber tree plant:

*Next time you’re found, with your chin on the ground
There’s a lot to be learned, so look around
Just what makes that little old ant
Think he’ll move that rubber tree plant
Anyone knows an ant, can’t
Move a rubber tree plant*

*But he’s got high hopes, he’s got high hopes
He’s got high apple pie, in the sky hopes
So any time you’re gettin’ low □’
stead of lettin’ go
Just remember that ant
Oops, there goes another rubber tree plant!*

Sinatra’s song became a hit, a true classic, that went on to be recorded by everybody from Sammy Davis Jr. to Dinah Shore to Doris Day to Bing Crosby — down to Laverne and Shirley, even Principal Skinner sang it, on The Simpsons. No wonder the song became a classic because here’s what classics do: they remind us of things we already know about ourselves that we maybe forget or pay too little attention to, and then a classic — like that goofy little song — comes along, and it catches us unawares, before everything that makes us feel low can take hold, so instead of “chin on the ground,” we end up pulling for the ant, and before you know it, “Oops, there goes another rubber tree plant.”

When it comes to GPUC, there are plenty of good things to be reminded of, to keep our chins off the ground; like that classic song advises, “there’s a lot to be learned, so look around” — at everything we do for ourselves and each other, from religious education for our kids, to the Resale Shop, to great music every week, including our back-again choir, to Reverend Mitra and our Sunday services, to the sustaining fellowship that comes to every one of us, as part of this beloved community. And the list could go on. But despite all those good things, we might still find ourselves feeling stuck, like in the song, maybe “getting’ low” and feeling like “lettin’ go.” Maybe it’s not so big a challenge as an ant moving a rubber tree, but the challenge we face now is considerable. We’re engaged in the process to find a new minister and a new music director. Given that we still haven’t replaced all of the parking lot rental money lost last year, it is even more critical for everyone who can to increase their pledges.

So, we’re asking you to indulge in a little reflecting, to think back on all this beloved community has done, and what it has meant to you, over the many good years we have spent together. And like that ant, we invite you to make a classic leap of faith — faith in what we can do together now, if only we believe in all that’s best about ourselves. Please, “just remember that ant,” and help us move that rubber tree plant.

¹High Hopes, music by James Van Heusen and words by Sammy Cahn.

Thanks to Bill Rehahn for designing the campaign logo.

Committee Forming On How To Improve The GPUC Website

Hello Members and Friends,

Our face to the greater community today is our website. This is where new residents to the East Side and seekers of a faith community start to search for a church home.

The website is also our internal library for our members. It is the location for our history, current practices, how we are organized, what is going on and our greater connection to the UUA.

While our current website is adequate, we can do better. At our last board meeting, we discussed how we could enhance and improve our current website to provide a stronger informational site and to design it to be easier to navigate.

I am requesting volunteers to explore how we can improve our website. This is a first step. Please reach out to me if you are interested in this important work.

Sincerely,
Ann Lipsitz

Exploring Accountability with the UU Common Read: On Repentance and Repair

On Repentance and Repair: Making Amends in an Unapologetic World is the 2023-24 UU Common Read. In this 2022 Beacon Press book, Rabbi Danya Ruttenberg offers a fresh perspective on how we make ourselves accountable to others.

This UU Common Read offers a glimpse into Judaism, one of Unitarian Universalism's foundational sources, through the writings of 12th century physician and scholar, Maimonides. The book invites us to explore practices, informed by Jewish tradition, that can lead us toward meaningful atonement in our personal, community, and national lives.

The Power of One

One song can spark a moment,
One flower can wake the dream.
One tree can start a forest,
One bird can herald spring.
One smile begins a friendship,
One handclasp lifts a soul.
One star can guide a ship at sea,
One word can frame the goal.
One vote can change a nation,
One sunbeam lights a room.
One candle wipes out darkness,
One laugh will conquer gloom.
One step must start each journey,
One word must start each prayer.
One hope will raise our spirits,
One touch can show you care.
One voice can speak with wisdom,
One heart can know what's true.
One life can make the difference,
You see, it's up to You!

Zoom Techs Needed

Zoom continues to be popular with our congregants and we publish the recordings on our website. We are now using 2 cameras when the choir sings and with our sound mixer we can provide an excellent audio and video experience.

Broadcasting the service requires a technician to set up, monitor and tear down the equipment for each service. Most of the services are covered by the lead tech Abe Neds-Fox a college student and we have 3 others trained but we need more. We will provide live training and an instruction guide with pictures.

1. General PC Skills
2. Familiarity with uploading Google drive.
3. Zoom experience.
4. Simple trouble-shooting skills

5. Reliable
6. Available Sunday mornings 9:45AM to 12:00PM

We pay $20/hour.

If you are interested, please contact Rudy Wedenoja at rudy@wedenoja.com or Ameera in the office.

2023-24 DIRECTORY – PHYSICAL COPIES

GPUC Members and Friends,

Directories have been made available for pick up since mid-November. They are available for pick up during office hours and before or after Sundays services. They are alphabetically arranged and located on one of the wooden tables in the entrance foyer (look for the sign).

Any directory not picked up by March 1st will be mailed out. If you would like it to be mailed out to you sooner, please send an email to Ameera (officegpuc@gmail.com) and it will be sent out via USPS First Class Mail within 1-2 business days.

If you have any questions regarding the directory or need help accessing the online copy, please do not hesitate to reach out too! Thank you!

Coffee Volunteers Needed!

Need is high for volunteers to sign up to make the coffee and tea we all enjoy after service.

Current openings include making coffee and/or cleanup.

If you are a new volunteer, pick a date and an experienced congregant will show you the ropes.

Call Kathy Konwiak if you need more information, Thank you.

ATTENTION WOMEN AND MEN WHO ENJOY SINGING!

GPUC's Adult Choir is looking for more singers to help grow our rather small choir. We especially need those who sing tenor and bass parts, but we won't turn down additional sopranos and altos! Our awesome director, Kayvon Kashani-Gharavi, will gladly help you figure out which voice part suits you best. This is an audition-free choir, so you needn't have to worry about that!

The choir rehearses weekly on Thursday evenings from 7:15 - 8:30'ish, in room #2, (the purple room), in the R.E. Wing. We perform during the Sunday service usually twice a month. While 100% attendance would be fantastic, we know that isn't realistic. Occasional absences due to health, travel, work, and family matters is understandable.

Please consider becoming a part of our fine Adult Choir. We have a great time together but would have an even greater time by adding your voice to the ensemble! If you're ready to sing with us, just show up at a rehearsal, it's that easy!

Questions and/or concerns? Contact or call Birdi Hansen-Marr at 586-696-4529.

Our FOOD SHARING collection is always taking donations!

“There is always a need for food.”
— Crossroads of Detroit.

It is time to reinvigorate our Food Pantry Collection program. In an effort to do just that we are going to implement a Second Sunday Themed Collection. Starting in January, every second Sunday of the Month will be a special collection day. Themes will include Cereal Day, Canned Meat Day, and Hygiene Products Day, all of which are in high demand. There will be a shelf in the lobby for food and other items and a box for cash donations. Watch for each collection theme in the weekly announcements. Our next collection Sunday will fall on February 11. Theme is Canned Meats.

Please consider bringing nonperishable food and toiletries when you go to church. Our donations are always gratefully received by Crossroads staff! Thank you!

1. Everyone donates Kraft Mac and Cheese in the box. They can rarely use it because it needs milk and butter which is hard to get from regular food banks.
2. Boxed milk is a treasure, as kids need it for cereal which they also get a lot of.
3. Everyone donates pasta sauce and spaghetti noodles.
4. They cannot eat all the awesome canned veggies and soup unless you put a can opener in too or buy pop tops.
5. Oil is a luxury but needed for Rice a-Roni which they also get a lot of.
6. Spices or salt and pepper would be a real Christmas gift.
7. Tea bags and coffee make them feel like you care.
8. Sugar and flour are treats.
9. They fawn over fresh produce donated by farmers and grocery stores.
10. Seeds are cool in Spring and Summer because growing can be easy for some.
11. They rarely get fresh meat.
12. Tuna and crackers make a good lunch.
13. Hamburger Helper goes nowhere without ground beef.
14. They get lots of peanut butter and jelly but usually not sandwich bread.
15. Butter or margarine is nice too.
16. Eggs are a real commodity.
17. Cake mix and frosting makes it possible to make a child's birthday cake.
18. Dishwashing detergent is very expensive and is always appreciated.
19. Feminine hygiene products are a luxury and women will cry over that.
20. Everyone loves Stove Top Stuffing.

Sunday Morning Flowers

We welcome donations for flowers on Sunday mornings. Take a moment to recognize or honor someone dear or to commemorate a special occasion by providing fresh flowers for the Sanctuary. You can make arrangements to bring your own flowers or a monetary donation and someone from the Flower Committee will purchase flowers and make a beautiful arrangement. Please use the insert in the Sunday order of service or contact the church office and sign-up for a Sunday or two.

If you have questions, please feel free to email or call the church office at officegpuc@gmail.com or (313) 881-0420. Thank you for sharing your remembrances of special occasions and important people in your life.
